PUBLIC URINATION AND RECKLESS DRIVING LEAD TO ARREST

During CCTV monitoring, a young male individual was spotted urinating inside the premises of a law firm at the corner of Marsh and Beach Street. The matter was immediately handed over to SAPS while monitoring of the motor vehicle continued. The individual was later seen entering a silver Renault Kwid and driving to Zeppelins, where the vehicle stopped on a yellow line with hazard lights activated. The vehicle then drove off, swerving left and right and accelerating at high speed. Suspecting the driver to be under the influence, the information was relayed to SAPS. The vehicle was observed disregarding road laws and driving recklessly after losing sight of the vehicle. SAPS later reported that the motor vehicle had crashed into a SAPS vehicle after officers attempted to stop it by blocking the road and flashing their lights. Municipal Traffic responded promptly. The driver's alcohol reading measured 0.89mg/l. No injuries were sustained, however, both vehicles were written off. The driver was arrested, and the vehicle was towed away.

SUSPICIOUS MALE LED TO ARREST

CCTV operators observed a suspicious male running up Jacaranda Street before entering a yard where he allegedly assaulted another individual and fled the scene. The incident occurred at the corner of Roselind and Jacaranda Street and was handed over to SAPS. Upon investigation, it was established that both individuals had come from Patrick's Pub, where one had allegedly been robbed, leading to a fight. One individual was arrested for being drunk and disorderly.

TRESPASSING LED TO ARREST

A complaint was received via WhatsApp reporting that a person had jumped over a fence in the Beacon Point area to retrieve a ball without permission. The matter was handed over to SAPS, who attended the scene. The suspect was located and arrested for trespassing.

ILLEGAL BURNING OF COPPER

CCTV monitoring detected a person burning suspected copper cables in an open field in KwaNonqaba, opposite the scrap yard, with black smoke visible. Law Enforcement was notified. A 56 Notice was issued under the By-Law relating to Public Nuisance, Section 5(c) read with Section 22, for burning rubble or refuse on a public amenity. The individual claimed the copper cables were obtained from a friend. The burnt copper was handed in at KwaNonqaba SAPS, and an affidavit was submitted. Firefighters attended the scene and extinguished the fire.

DRUG POSSESSION ARREST

A suspicious male was observed roaming around the Santos Ablutions multiple times. The incident was handed over to SAPS, who attended the complaint. The individual was found in possession of drugs (tik) and was arrested.

GROUP ASSAULT WITH DANGEROUS WEAPONS

CCTV Footage captured seven individuals attacking one individual in Oester Street. Weapons resembling knives or pangas were visible, and the footage showed the victim being stabbed. The complaint was immediately handed over to SAPS. After the assault, the suspects chased the victim as he attempted to flee. SAPS arrived promptly, and another individual on the scene directed officers to the injured person. Officers proceeded to assist the victim.

SUSPECTED STOLEN GOODS

Two males carrying backpacks and suspected stolen goods were observed walking in a residential area in MJ Harris. The matter was handed over to SAPS, and the individuals were arrested.

POSSESSION OF SUSPECTED STOLEN PROPERTY

A suspicious individual was observed walking through a passage in MJ Harris Street, carrying a tyre believed to be stolen property. Shortly thereafter, another person was seen accompanying him with additional items. SAPS responded quickly after the complaint was handed over and apprehended the suspects. A jigsaw, an old radio, and a tyre were found in their possession. They were arrested for possession of stolen property.

ARMED ROBBERY VEHICLE TRACKING

Assistance was requested to locate a vehicle involved in an armed robbery behind Shoprite KwaNonqaba. Multiple CCTV Playbacks were conducted. Surveillance footage showed the vehicle traveling down Mayixhale Street toward KwaNonqaba Station, later seen near the robbery scene heading toward Mooney Street. It was then spotted in Crotz Street, exiting toward George. The investigation Officer was informed, and the operators alerted the surrounding stations. Information was circulated to operational members and network groups. The vehicle was tracked, SAPS and POPS were contacted for backup as the occupants were reportedly armed. The vehicle was traced to George rural Palmiet (front to Waboomskraal, rear to N10), where three suspects were apprehended and arrested for suspected crimes.

VEHICLE LINKED TO ROBBERY AND THEFT

A follow-up complaint was received regarding a vehicle associated with robbery and theft in Bland Street, opposite PostNet. The vehicle was checked and observed driving in Mayixhale Street. KwaNonqaba station was informed, who successfully located the vehicle. One male suspect was arrested.

ILLEGAL COPPER TRADE

A complaint was received via WhatsApp regarding a person buying copper wire in James Street. The matter was handed over to Law Enforcement. A 56 Notice was issued to an individual who was found burning a tyre in a bush area.

ILLEGAL PARKING

Two motor vehicles were observed illegally parked on Marsh & Beach Street. Both vehicles were parked on a yellow line, with one vehicle partially encroaching onto the curb. The matter was handed over to Law Enforcement. Municipal Traffic attended the scene and issued two Section 341 fines.

MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENT

A WhatsApp complaint reported an accident on the R328 near Cheetah Lodge. All relevant departments were dispatched to the scene. One vehicle had rolled. Two adult males were reported as code blue, and one adult female was reported as code red. The injured parties were transported to the hospital by Metro Services.

STOLEN ITEMS AT HARRY GIDDY PARK

A complaint was received via WhatsApp reporting three males in possession of stolen items at Harry Giddy Park. The matter was handed over to SAPS. Mossel Bay SAPS attended the scene, resulting in two arrests. One individual was arrested for theft, and the other for possession of a dangerous weapon.

STOLEN VEHICLE

Law Enforcement assistance was requested regarding a stolen vehicle at McDonald's in KwaNonqaba. The matter was handed over to SAPS for further investigation. KwaNonqaba SAPS attended the scene. No arrest was made, as the issue was resolved between the suspect and the vehicle owner.

MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENT

A complaint was received via WhatsApp reporting a motor vehicle accident on the N2 in the direction of George. The matter was immediately handed over to all relevant emergency services. Emergency services attended the scene, where two patients were classified as code orange and four patients as green. The scene was subsequently cleared.
